AEA Federal Credit Union Celebrates 75 Years

Yuma, AZ, April 27, 2017 – From doing business out of a shoebox in 1942 to five branch locations and more than 31,500 members, AEA Federal Credit Union was excited to kick-off its 75th Anniversary celebration recently.

“AEA has come a long way over the years and we want to thank all our members,” said Brian Mendivil, President and CEO of AEA Federal Credit Union. “Our core value of making a difference in the lives of our members’ one person at a time and our commitment to the community remains our true focus.”

AEA employees and board members gather in front of its Central Branch location for a group photo commemorating its 75 years in Yuma.

AEA Federal Credit Union has been building relationships since 1942. They have $249 million in assets and more than 31,500 members with five branches serving Yuma, Somerton and Parker, Arizona. Membership is open to anyone who lives, works, worships or attends school in Yuma and La Paz counties. For more information, visit aeafcu.org. Federally insured by NCUA.
