AEA Federal Credit Union Gives to Arizona's Children Association

Yuma, AZ, July 21, 2017 – AEA Federal Credit Union recently presented a check of $2,270 to Arizona's Children Association. Funds were raised through the Jean's Giver Program during the second quarter of this year.

AEA employees participate in the Jeans Giver Program all year long and donate either $5 or $10 from their paychecks to wear jeans on specific days of the week. Each quarter, the funds raised are given to a charity selected by employees.

"AEA is proud to support Arizona's Children Association," said Adele Sandberg, Interim President and CEO. "It's through organizations like these that we can truly make a difference for our community."

Arizona's Children Association helps children, individuals and families all across Arizona including foster care, adoption, behavioral health, family preservation, parenting education and more.

AEA Federal Credit Union has been building relationships since 1942. They have $252 million in assets and more than 31,000 members with five branches serving Yuma, Somerton and Parker, Arizona. Membership is open to anyone who lives, works, worships or attends school in Yuma and La Paz counties. For more information, visit aeafcu.org.

Deposits at AEA Federal Credit Union remain federally insured by the NCUA, an independent agency of the federal government up to $250,000, and backed by the full faith and credit of the United States Government.
