AEA Federal Credit Union Gives to Epilepsy Foundation of Arizona

Yuma, AZ, November 14, 2017 – AEA Federal Credit Union recently presented a check in the amount of $2,770 to the Epilepsy Foundation of Arizona. Funds were raised by employees during the third quarter of 2017.

Employees participate in the Jeans Giver Program all year long and donate $5 or $10 from their paychecks to wear jeans on specific days of the week. Each quarter, the funds raised are given to a charity selected by employees.

“AEA and our employees are pleased to support an organization that assists the families and people living with Epilepsy in Yuma,” said Adele Sandberg, President and CEO.

AEA Federal Credit Union, Yuma’s only community non-for-profit financial cooperative, has been building relationships with members, businesses and communities for more than 75 years. They have $248 million in assets and more than 31,000 members, and five branches serving Yuma, Somerton and Parker, Arizona. Membership is open to anyone who lives, works, worships or attends school in Yuma and La Paz counties. For more information, visit aeafcu.org.

Deposits at AEA Federal Credit Union remain federally insured by the NCUA, an independent agency of the federal government up to $250,000, and backed by the full faith and credit of the United States Government.
